

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Insurance Intermediaries & the Distribution of the Insurance Products

Introduction.

I. The Categories

1. The classification of Intermediaries and its impact on professional liability - Brokers vs. Agents (Prof. Dr. P. Takáts)
2. Tied Insurance Intermediaries (Dr. Ch. Chrissanthis)
3. Alternative types of Insurance Intermediaries (Prof. Dr. I. Rokas)
4. Which regulation for the Reinsurance Intermediaries: present and future of the EU Directive 2002/92 (Prof. Dr. P. Marano)

II. The Status

5. Conflict of Interests in the field of Insurance Mediation (Prof. Dr. M. Werber)
6. Issues attached to the role of Insurance Intermediaries (Prof. Dr. I. Rokas)
7. Representative power of Insurance Intermediaries (agents and brokers) and imputation of their knowledge and fault (Dr. Ch. Chrissanthis)
8. Obligations of the Broker vis-à-vis the Insurer (Dr. K. Noussia)
9. An Ongoing Post-Placement Information Duty of Insurance Brokers After The Conclusion of the Contract? A Critical Analysis (Dr. K. Noussia)
10. Broker's liability under the EU Directive 2002/92 (Prof. Dr. P. Marano)

III. Across the Borders

11. Conflict of Interest of Insurance Brokers: Recent Developments in US and China and Prospects for the Regulation in the European Union (Prof. P. Kochenburger, Prof. R. Li, Prof. Dr. P. Marano)
12. Distance selling - Collaboration between Intermediaries (Prof. Dr. I. Rokas)
13. Special problems of German Insurance Brokers in connection with the Law on Legal Advice and on the Award of Public Insurance Services (Prof. Dr. M. Werber)
14. The information duties for Insurance Intermediaries: the role of alternative distribution channels, in particular banks. Some impressions from Italy (Prof. Dr. D. Cerini)

IV. Comparative review

15. A comparative review on insurance mediation based exclusively on the answers received by AIDA National Chapters and on reports and speeches of the participants during the sessions of the Working Party